PRESS RELEASE

Exceptional passenger transport timetable change as of 5 September

Prague, 26 August 2016 – Správa železniční dopravní cesty (the Czech Railway Infrastructure administration) prepared as of Monday 5 September an exceptional change of the railway passenger transport timetable 2016. Only minimal changes in train running occur as of this day.

In long-distance transport, the carrier LEO Express extends on Tuesdays the train 1357 on the line No 320 from Karviná hlavní nádraží to Bystřice. On the contrary, the train 1359 in the section Bohumín – Bystřice and the train 1364 in the section Karviná hlavní nádraží - Bohumín are cancelled on these days.

In regional transport, changes of running in terms of minutes occur on the line No 071 for all trains stopping at Luštěnice Station. The change was caused by the platform's relocation to another position in connection with reconstruction of the railway line Nymburk – Mladá Boleslav.

We recommend passengers to verify the current situation concerning their train connection before starting their journey, preferably in internet browsers. All changes are also published on the website www.szdc.cz or www.cd.cz as well as at relevant railway stations. More information and details can be also found at passenger cash desks and information centres of České dráhy and at contact sites of other railway carriers.
